The Honorable Mbombok Njié Bileck Masanick Manguelle was born in Eternity in early 2011. He was 96 years old. We say thank you because despite all that it is no longer physically alive, there are several others in the public square to continue the Beautiful Work .

First, you need a handwriting. Black Africans have never been able to create a writing because they have never had the need to write. Then the rest is self-satisfaction. 70% without electricity and drinking water makes it really laugh to talk about science. Maybe gri gri or play jou or Marabouts then it's science fiction.

Withbeter, Sir, there is no more ignorant than one who is not aware of his own turpitude. Africa has experienced more than 7 writing systems. Do some research before coming to tell nonsense.

+ Axel Bombet, you can show us these 7 systems. Or it is always even complex to believe that the Africans are able to invent something. Without us you can not even live or feed yourself or move or treat you, without us you are NOTHING !!! So keep your crap for you and keep writing with the writing of the whites. Even your name Axel is of us then without us you do not even exist. NOTHING.

Sir, I advised you to do some research to avoid comments like yours. "You" allowed us to take care of ourselves? To nourish us? Spare us your arguments straight out of these pseudo documentary where only shows starved Men in Africa. Know that Africa (Kama of its true name) is the cradle of all the civilizations of the world. The separation between man and animal has taken place in Africa. The theorems attributed to "Pythagoras, Thales, Archimedes ..." existed for some 300 years before their birth. The Ishango Staff, the oldest calculator dating back over 200 thousand years discovered in the former Belgian congo. Presented today at the Museum of Natural Sciences in Belgium where it is celebrated " The Kemite genius (African) The first charter of human rights written by the Mandingo empire in 1222, called the charter of kurukan fuga whose precursor is soundiata keïta where it was mentioned the equality of the woman and it is useless to Mention the African inventions that revolutionized the 21st century. I have more time to discuss with you. BACK WITH FACTUAL ELEMENTS TO CONTROL ME OR OTHERWISE STORE YOU NEVER.

Unless the terms Humanity and civilization are synonyms, reassure you I know very well what I have written. I conclude that you base your light reflection on clichés that conditioned you instead of doing concrete research and confronting facts. I would prefer that we close this debate. Cultivate yourself and get out of this sumptuous sucking matrix of criticism of the mind. Good Sunday :)

Withbeter you do not think that before the colonization we had languages that are alleviating endangered with globalization and writings? We erased our history and make us believe that we have no history that is the reality

Reply •

W

Withbeter 1 week ago

+ Kamer Pretty North of Africa was also colonized but he kept his language and his writing because it existed, so no bullshit. Black Africa has no written history because it does not have a writing! The rest is a banter to satisfy itself by inventing a story. A hunting gathering people as in prehistory that continues even in certain areas as in the desert of Namibia and its region, that is the reality.

Skip navigation Withbeter you know? Every people is destined to have its peculiarity and God has sent us on earth to complete and our knowledge with. Permits me to have doubts about what you affirm if I have been dispossessed of my history. No people have the monopoly of knowledge, for the reason that the whites have had to deport themselves to Africa, and they acquire knowledge of it, and instead of sharing their own we have imposed them by violence unfortunately. Culture according to its environment so if you claim that we have not invented writing and well I see

Kamer Pretty 1 week ago (edited)

Okay if we did not have writing I do not think we'd be dead. What did this so-called civilization bring to us? The white man suffers from his soul parckil knows that he has brought nothing up to our days to Africa except poverty and violence. The writing comes from Egypt and therefore from Africa □ and that is why we stole our history just to satisfy a complex of superiority. Bref one will not discuss 100 years but with or without civilization one will leave all this earth what counts For me c the pride of my culture and its many riches but also the respect for the culture of others. Africa is the cradle of humanity and I am proud of my people on this thank you for having read me

+ Kamer Pretty 1- Egyptian hieroglyphic writing is figurative. 2 - the Egyptians are not black Africans and do not consider them in the same rank as they themselves. 3. It is true that Africa is the cradle of humanity not to be confused with the cradle of civilization, for which all humanity has the right to benefit from its resources. 4- the wealth of each country comes by the courage, intelligence and work of every citizen, with the education of his children. Finally, I hope that your knowledge has been enhanced by this very useful information.

Withbeter Your "information" is partial and partial selective. I do not know if it is bad faith or ignorance or surely both but you are an uneducated. Ancient Egypt was beautiful and very black, dear Monsieur. I refer you to the "works of Cheick Anta Diop".

Speaks of your prophet pedophile mohamed who raped aïcha at the age of 9 in the addith 114 of the sahi of muslim, speak to us of that rather, here is your culture, the culture of the rape, the maghrebins did not invent anything on this Land apart from the garbage bags you put on your mothers' heads and mothers hide their ugliness. Apart from praying a pedophile prophet and turning your buttocks towards mecca you know what to do? Besides, the Arabs who live in Mecca do not consider you as Arab mdr, for them you are slaves mixed, the Saudis go to the Maghreb to empty and make dirty to your women because it is shit to their Eyes, rather worry about all this, with Morocco that is the number one prostitution before the Thai mdr and after that will speak of islam, strip of good for nothing

Withbeter Still you the ignorant of service? Are you trying to prove something to you? Concerning the African writings I will not go back on the subject. You've already realized your abysmal ignorance. Good on the africanity of the ancient Egyptians, inform you with the link below and notes although these scientific findings have more than a century, is to say your intellectual retardation ...

+ Withbeter You're just a pathetic ignorant and can not even write correctly. That says a lot about your intellectual level. It was not a video but an extract from the anthropological society of Paris dating back to 1905. This remains out of reach for you. You are a troll without interest and without the least intelligence. Go to school to learn to write. You have more pity than anything else. I stop wasting my time, you're a desperate cause.
